EPA released a draft Fungicide Strategy that builds on its final Herbicide and Insecticide Strategies, with a 60 - day public comment period closing June 29, 2026 and finalization expected no later than November 2026. The strategy would extend endangered - species mitigations such as buffers and drift - reduction to fungicide labels. Separately, a June 12, 2026 Federal Register notice announced receipt of applications to register new uses of currently registered pesticides, with comments due by July 13.
