카드 요약 / 당시 확인 내용

As of June 22, the urea barge price in New Orleans was about US$350 per tonne, down from a wartime peak of $782 during the US - Iran hostilities. Roughly 200,000 tonnes of urea moved through the Strait of Hormuz after a 60 - day ceasefire, easing the supply squeeze. Phosphate prices, however, have been slow to fall because Middle East and Chinese supply remains tightly controlled.
