The global crop protection chemicals market is estimated at USD 83.32 billion in 2025 and projected to reach USD 106.26 billion by 2030 at a 5.0% CAGR, according to a MarketsandMarkets report published June 3, 2026. Food security, maintained planting area, and the spread of biologicals and precision application are key drivers, with BASF, Bayer, FMC, Syngenta and Corteva among the leaders. Even in a mature market, 5% growth signals opportunity in new formulations, biopesticides and digital solutions.
