FMC Corporation (NYSE: FMC), a leading global agricultural sciences company, today announced that it has entered into a framework agreement to sell its property in Newark, Delaware — home to the Stine Research Center, FMC's global R&D headquarters — for gross proceeds of approximately $114 million USD, subject to a due diligence period and other closing conditions. FMC will lease back actively operated facilities and apply proceeds directly to debt reduction. CFO Andrew Sandifer said the move reflects 'strengthening our balance sheet without compromising the investments and capabilities that will drive FMC's future growth.' Closing is expected in Q4 2026.
