Corteva raised full - year earnings guidance despite mixed results. Q2 net sales fell 1% year - on - year to $6.38 billion. Operating EBITDA grew 4% to $2.26 billion and operating earnings per share reached $2.30, beating forecasts. In the first half, net sales increased 4%, operating EBITDA increased 10% and operating EPS increased 14%. Crop protection, while profitable, faced pricing pressure particularly in Brazil and Latin America, with management expecting low - to - mid single - digit price declines in the second half. The company remains on track to complete its October 1 separation into standalone crop protection (Corteva) and seed businesses (Vylor).
