Bayer's Crop Science division delivered 5.5% sales growth in H1 2026 with EBITDA margins expanding to 31%, emerging as the group's strongest performer. CEO Bill Anderson firmly rejected break - up discussions, saying the company will not allow it to be a distraction while it has momentum. Management prioritizes executing five strategic objectives - pharma pipeline improvement, Crop Science profitability, debt reduction, litigation resolution and productivity. Bayer lowered expected year - end net debt to EUR 29 - 30 billion from EUR 32 - 33 billion.
