Hengde Qin has been appointed Syngenta Group chief executive officer, effective August 1, 2026, following a nomination and succession process. Qin, previously chief operating officer and head of seeds, succeeds Jeff Rowe. Chairman Fanrong Li said Qin boasts a unique combination of operational, financial and commercial experience. Qin previously held CEO positions at two publicly listed companies in mainland China and Hong Kong. The appointment aligns with the group’s longer-term ambition to list in Hong Kong.
