Corteva named Luther 'Luke' Kissam, former Albemarle chairman and CEO, as CEO of 'New Corteva,' the standalone crop-protection company being spun off from its seed business in Q4 2026; Kissam joined June 1, 2026, with Greg Page as Chair. The leadership team includes Jeff Rudolph (CFO), Brook Cunningham (Chief Commercial Officer), Ralph Ford (Chief Integrated Operations Officer) and Reza Rasoulpour (CTO). New Corteva is positioned as an innovation-driven, asset-light crop-protection business emphasizing nature-inspired technologies, with an investor day scheduled for September 15 at the NYSE.
