ADAMA reported first - half 2026 sales of $2.10 billion, roughly flat against $2.091 billion a year earlier, with net profit of $62 million compared with an $11 million loss in H1 2025. Adjusted net profit rose 28% to $63 million while adjusted EBITDA fell 3% to $302 million, a 14.4% margin versus 14.8%. Second - quarter sales were $1.063 billion, down 3%, with a net loss of $20 million. Europe, Africa and the Middle East sales rose 9% to $731 million; North America rose 5% to $518 million; Latin America fell 3% to $353 million; Asia - Pacific declined 12%. The company launched 23 new products and secured 54 registrations during H1 2026. CEO Ga ë l Hili said volume growth was visible across most regions while competitive market conditions, low farmer profitability and industry overcapacity continued to create pricing pressure.
